

Lewis Spitz & Edward M Kiely Symposium

with the

75th Simpson-Smith Memorial Lecture

Thursday
16 November 2023
13:00 – 18:00

Goodenough College,
Mecklenburgh Square,
London, WC1N 2AB

CLICK HERE
to register for this event

Moderators: Mr. Joe Curry & Ms. Dhanya Mullassery

13:00 - 13:15	Greetings and Introduction - Prof. Lewis Spitz and Prof. Paolo De Coppi, Professor of Paediatric Surgery (Great Ormond Street Hospital)
13:15 - 13:45	Biliary Atresia and the Theory of Marginal Gains - Prof. Mark Davenport, Professor of Paediatric Surgery (King's College)
13:45 - 14:15	Congenital Porto-Systemic Shunts - A natural human model for the development of liver tumours - Mr. Athanasios Tyraskis, Specialty Trainee in Paediatric Surgery (King's College Hospital)
14:15 - 14:45	In Pursuit of Pancreatitis - Miss. Evelyn Ong, Paediatric Hepatobiliary and Transplant Surgeon (Birmingham Children's Hospital)
14:45 - 15:15	MIS and pancreatectomy in Congenital Hyperinsulinism - Prof. Paolo De Coppi, Professor of Paediatric Surgery (Great Ormond Street Hospital)
15:15 - 15:45	Coffee Break
Moderators: Prof. Simon Eaton & Mr. Stavros Loukogeorgakis
15:45 - 16:15	Surgical education: An inside out perspective - Mr. Simon Blackburn, Co-Director of Education (Great Ormond Street Hospital)
16:15 - 16:45	Liver Tumours: resection and transplantation - Prof. Nigel Heaton, Consultant Hepatobiliary Surgeon (King's College London)
16:45 - 17:00	Coffee Break
17:00 - 18:00	Introduction – Prof. Paolo De Coppi 75th Simpson-Smith Memorial Lecture: Reducing the surgical insult in children: A career in MIS Prof. Atsuyuki Yamataka, Department of Paediatric General and Urogenital Surgery (Juntendo University Faculty of Medicine, Tokyo, Japan) Conclusion and Final Remarks - Mr. Edward M Kiely