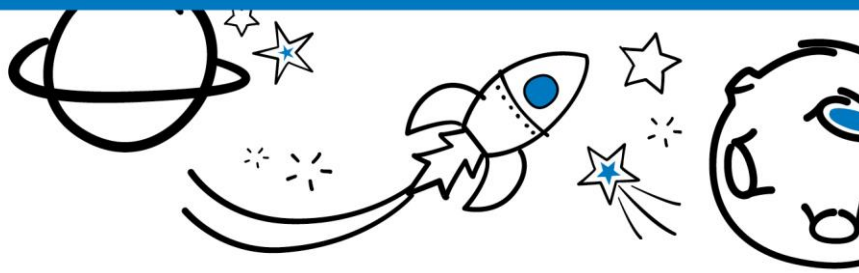
NHS
Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children
NHS Foundation Trust



Complexity and Uncertainty in Paediatrics - Safeguarding Children and Patient Safety

Friday 27 September, 9:15-17:00

8:45-9:15	Registration for those attending in person (Venue: Weston House Lecture Theatre, Great Ormond Street, London, WC1N 3JH). Those joining online to log in at 9:13.
9:15-9:20	Welcome, opening remarks & housekeeping	Elizabeth Akers, Head of Education (Patient Safety), GLA and Charlotte Barran, Lead Practice Educator for Safeguarding, GLA
9:20-10:10	Keynote presentation	Dr Duncan Helm, Senior Lecturer and Head of Social Work, University of Stirling Dr Duncan Helm is a Senior Lecturer and Head of Social Work at the University of Stirling, Scotland. He has worked extensively in education for child safeguarding professionals to enhance professional judgement and decision-making. Duncan's research interests span assessment, analysis, sensemaking and rationality in professional practice. His theoretical work explores professional judgement and is currently focused on the role and function of peer-aided judgement.
10:10-11:00	Panel discussion with health, social care and academics exploring ethical and professional dilemmas within safeguarding and patient safety
11:00-11:15	Break
11:15-12:30	Lightning talks. To include: • The complexity of patient safety and multidisciplinary working (working title) • Structurally embedding spaces for emotive conversations in hospital settings - Lessons from the Three Little Pigs	• Dr Clare Melvin, Chartered Psychologist and Lecturer in Applied Psychology, University of East Anglia • Dr Gareth Drake, Clinical Psychologist, GOSH
12:30-12:45	Q&A
12:45-13:30	Lunch Event ends for virtual delegates
13:45-15:00	Workshops. Topics to include:

	• Patient safety & safeguarding case discussions • Sensemaking and uncertainty in safeguarding
15:00-15:15	Break
15:15-16:30	Workshops continued
16:30-16:50	Reflections and findings from workshops
16:50-17:00	Closing remarks
17:00	Close

Organised in collaboration with:

University of East Anglia

crcf Centre for Research on Children & Families