

Less Plastic More Planet, Greening the NHS

Proud partner of Born Green Generation initiative (borngreengeneration.org)

Delivering healthcare free from unnecessary plastics and toxic chemicals

Less Plastic More Planet, Greening the NHS

Tuesday 3 June, 9:30-16:00

09:30-10:00	Registration Venue: London House Building, Goodenough College, Mecklenburgh Square, London, WC1N 2AB
10:00-10:10	Welcome & opening remarks	Jason Dawson , Director of Space and Place, GOSH
10:10-10:35	Keynote: Delivering a Net Zero NHS	Tsanko Dimov , Senior Net Zero Policy Manager, Greener NHS
10:35-11:15	Keynote: Here, There and Everywhere: how are microplastics impacting our health?	Dr Stephanie Wright , Senior Lecturer in Environmental Toxicology, Imperial College London
11:15-11:45	Break
11:45-12:20	Session 1: Born Green Generation	Jo Frame , Green Perinatal Clinical Officer, Born Green Generation, HCWH Europe
12:20-12:45	Session 2: Waste not, Want not	Dr Elze Porte , Research fellow, UCL Innovation Hub
12:45-13:45	Lunch
13:45-14:15	Session 3: Introduction to Green Champion Teams Competition	Imogen Stringer , Head of Sustainability Education, GOSH and Agnes Kiraly/ Nuwanthi Yapa Mahathanthila , Quality Improvement Lead, GOSH
14:15-14:25	PICU Project team presentation	Caitriona Morrissey, Liam Watson and Rachel Davis
14:25-14:35	Dentistry Project Team presentation	Sarah-Jane Geoghegan and Anna Aleixes Soares
14:35-14:45	Air Quality Project team	Nick Martin
14:45-14:55	Theatre Project presentation	Abigale Cole
14:55-15:05	Sats Probe Project team	Alice Knight
15:05-15:30	Awards ceremony & closing remarks	Jason Dawson , Director of Space and Place, GOSH
15:30-16:00	Networking and Close	