

Paediatric Intensive Care Airway Course

An immersive simulation course for senior paediatric intensive care trainees and fellows, and advanced clinical practitioners.

Overview

The GOSH Paediatric Difficult Airway Course is aimed at individuals wishing to develop and improve their knowledge and skills in the management of children with difficult airways.

Target Audience

Senior paediatric intensive care trainees and fellows, and advanced clinical practitioners. This course is not suitable for neonatologists or staff working primarily within a neonatal environment.

Course Structure

- Hands-on skills workshops on equipment and techniques supplemented by lectures on airway pathology in children
- Case based discussions
- Tailored simulation scenarios for candidates in a safe environment

Faculty

A Multidisciplinary team members from paediatric intensive care, anaesthetics and clinical simulation

SCAN QR OR CLICK
HERE TO REGISTER

GREAT ORMOND STREET HOSPITAL
Clinical Simulation Centre, WC1N 3JH

Tues 8th December 2026 | 9:00AM - 5:00PM

PRICE

£300 per person