

Virtual Paediatric Long Term Ventilation Course 2021

Great Ormond Street
Hospital for Children
NHS Foundation Trust

Date: 21st-22nd (Wed/Thur) April, 2021

A comprehensive 2-day course focusing on the care of children requiring long term invasive or non-invasive ventilation

Target audience:

- General paediatricians and trainee
- Nurses (working in hospital/community settings)
- Allied Health Professionals
- Carers

Price:

• Nurses and AHP:

£55 for 1 day ; £100 for 2 days
( Early birds: £40 for 1 day; £75 for 2 days)

• Doctors:

£70 for 1 day; £130 for 2 days
(Early birds: £60 for 1 day; £100 for 2 days)

Please register at:

<https://courses.gosh.org/GOSHVentilation2021>

For further enquiries:

- Contact email: elaine.chan@gosh.nhs.uk
garry.rendle@gosh.nhs.uk

Lectures and workshops based teaching on:

- Sleep disordered breathing in children
- Indications and epidemiology of long term ventilation (invasive and non-invasive ventilation) in children
- From pathophysiology to the practicalities e.g. investigations, Initiation, monitoring, escalating/weaning ventilation
- workshops on choice of ventilator and interface, mask fitting, circuits
- Clinical scenarios, trouble shooting clinical or equipment problems
- Tracheostomy care
- Introduction to cough assist
- Long term ventilation and ethical issues
- Transition – perspective from Adult NIV team
[more detailed program to follow]

Course organiser: Dr Elaine Chan, consultant in Respiratory Medicine, Sleep and Non-invasive ventilation