

CAST

CATS Stabilisation and Transport Simulation Course

2024 dates: 19th August and 27th September

Session time	08:30 – 17:00
Venue	Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children NHS Foundation Trust Great Ormond Street, London, WC1N 3JH
Price	£200 – Nurses / ODP / Registrars £300 - Consultants
Core target audience	Paediatrics Consultants, Paediatrics Registrars, Anaesthesia consultants, anaesthesia registrars, nurses, ODP/anaesthesia nurses
Course lead	Dr Linda Chigaru CATS Consultant Intensivist Specialty Lead for CATS Consultant Paediatric Anaesthetist Educational Lead for Clinical Simulation Great Ormond Street Hospital

Course Overview: The course begins with an overview of the principles of the initial resuscitation and stabilisation of the critically ill child before moving to 5 immersive high-fidelity simulations.

Learning Outcomes:

- To facilitate attendees recognising the common presentations of critically ill children
- To allow attendees to rehearse the initial stabilisation of these common presentations
- To facilitate attendees in practicing the teamworking and communication skills required to successfully resuscitate a critically ill child

To book your place on this course:

Click here to book 19th August 2024

Click here to book September 27th 2024

To pay by invoice click here

For further information on this course, please email simulation@gosh.nhs.uk