

Day 1
Wednesday 24 January
Weston House Lecture Theatre,
Great Ormond Street Hospital

0830 – 0900	REGISTRATION
0900 – 0930	Welcome and introduction	Professor Paul Winyard Head of the Nephro-urology Research Unit at the Institute of Child Health (ICH), Honorary Consultant in Paediatric Nephrology at Great Ormond Street Hospital (GOSH).
0930 – 1015	'Why is research important?'	Dr William Van't Hoff NIHR Clinical Director for NHS Engagement
1015 – 1100	Understanding the basics of clinical trials	Dr Sarita Depani Paediatric Oncology Specialist Registrar CRUK clinical trials fellow
1100 - 1130	REFRESHMENT BREAK
1130 – 1300	Understanding the process of research	Dr Sarita Depani Paediatric Oncology Specialist Registrar CRUK clinical trials fellow Tendai Bazaya Lead Research Nurse Somers Clinical Research Facility Dr Emma Parish Post Graduate Medical Education Fellow, Great Ormond Street Hospital
1300 – 1400	BREAK
1400 – 1500	Consent and recruitment	Dr Sarita Depani Paediatric Oncology Specialist Registrar CRUK clinical trials fellow Dr Patricia O'Hare British Research Council (BRC) Junior Faculty
1500 – 1530	Generation R – what's important to us?	Lizzy Choong, Annabel Howell and Tabitha Owen Generation R – Young People's Representatives
1530 – 1630	Me First: a Framework for communication	Jessie McCulloch Me First
1630	Feedback and close

Day 2
Thursday 25 January
Weston House Lecture Theatre,
Great Ormond Street Hospital

0830 – 0900	REGISTRATION
0900 – 0910	Welcome and introduction
0910 – 1000	Conducting a study: Experiences on the front line	Dr Jessica Bate Consultant Paediatric Oncologist
1000 – 1050	Conducting a study: What comes with being a PI?	Dr Nick Webb Academic Paediatric Nephrologist
1050 - 1110	REFRESHMENT BREAK
1110 – 1145	Panel discussion with Q&A session	Dr Jessica Bate Dr Nick Webb Dr Charlotte Barker Dr Chris Gale Tendai Bazaya
1145 – 1230	Contributing to research and publication: Using big data	Dr Chris Gale Senior Lecturer in Neonatal Medicine and Honorary Neonatal Consultant
1230 – 1300	Innovation in paediatric health research	Dr Chris Evans Anaesthetic Registrar with interest in paediatrics and innovation within healthcare
1300 - 1400	LUNCH
1400 – 1430	Forming networks	Dr Andrew Selman Paediatric anaesthetist and co- chair of Paediatric Anaesthesia Trainee Research Network (PATRN)
1430- 1500	Contributing to research and publication in alternative ways	Dr Emma Parish Post Graduate Medical Education Fellow, Paediatric Speciality Trainee
1500 – 1600	Making it work in practice	Dr Sarita Depani Paediatric Oncology Specialist Registrar CRUK clinical trials fellow Dr Emma Parish Post Graduate Medical Education Fellow
1600 – 1640	The 100K genome project	Dr Emma Clement Consultant in Clinical Genetics and Genomic Medicine
1640	Feedback and close

Learning objectives

- explain the benefits of conducting research at a local level
- define the processes involved in starting and sustaining a study as local principal investigator
- identify the different roles within a clinical research study team
- recognise the potential risks or pitfalls when conducting research
- be confident consenting participants for trials and applying the relevant ethical principles
- describe different methods of sharing outcomes from clinical research