

GREAT ORMOND STREET HOSPITAL

OPHTHALMIC VISITING

PROFESSOR DAY

With thanks to our sponsors:

Programme

Friday 30 January 2026

8:30-9:00	Registration and coffee Venue: Hallam Conference Centre, 44 Hallam Street, London, W1W 6JJ
9:00-9:05	Welcome	Professor Chris Lloyd, GOSH
9:05- 9:55	Anterior segment, and uveitis clinical case presentations	GOSH Fellows/team
9:55-10:15	The Great Debate "IOL implantation is contraindicated in children with uveitic cataract"	Professor Chris Lloyd, GOSH vs Dr Lola Solebo, GOSH
10:15- 10:45	Neurotrophic Keratopathy in Childhood	Professor Frank Larkin, Moorfields Eye Hospital/UCL
10:45-11:15	Tea/Coffee Break
11:15-12:00	Unpicking clinical conundrums – "the Diagnostic power of a multidisciplinary team"	GOSH Fellows and Consultants with Dr Sian Handley, GOSH and Dr Oliver Marmoy, GOSH and GOSH Vision Science, Imaging, Orthoptic and Optometry team
12:00-12:30	Genetic case presentations	GOSH Team
12:30-13:00	The Great Debate: "Strabismus surgery is cosmetic and has no sensory benefits"	Mr Tony Vivian, Addenbrooke's Hospital Cambridge vs Mr Richard Bowman, GOSH
13:00-13:45	Lunch
13:45-14:15	'The value of testing stereoacuity'	Professor Helen Davis, Dept of Orthoptics, University of Sheffield
14:15-15:00	Motility and strabismus case presentations	Miss Gurpreet Saini, GOSH, Fellows and GOSH Orthoptic team
15:00-15:30	Tea/Coffee Break
15:30-16:00	The Neurofibromatoses – lessons from the Guys/Kings regional service	Professor Chris Hammond, Guy's Hospital/KCL
16:00-16.30	CNS & Visual Pathway Tumours – the role of the paediatric neuro-ophthalmologist	Mr Richard Bowman, GOSH
16.30-17.00	Neuro-ophthalmic case presentations	Ms Vasiliki Panteli, GOSH and GOSH team
17:00	Close

Approved by the Royal College of Ophthalmologists for 6.5 CPD credits

With many thanks to the following generous sponsors of the meeting:

